People who work at BIRC are there to provide a wide range of services to assist newcomers and immigrants settle into their new homes. Moving to Saskatchewan

You made a decision that will affect you for the rest of your life. Saskatchewan is a beautiful place to live. While you are in Saskatchewan there are a great many things to do and see. In North Battleford we have the Western Development Museum that is full of historical information about the settlement of the prairies and the farming communities. As you travel around the rural areas of our region you will see hundreds of kilometers of grain fields that provide nourishment to our own community as well as communities around the world.

Many of the First Nations communities hold pow-wows that showcase their culture through dance, food and crafts. This is an experience you will want to take in while you are here.

Climate

Saskatchewan has a very diverse climate. We experience all four seasons to the fullest. Spring is from late March to late June. During this season we see the rebirth of our communities. Plants begin to sprout and trees turn green. Animals begin to prepare for their new families and birds hatch their young. This is a season for outdoor sports like fishing, boating, baseball etc. The temperature ranges from about 0°C at night to about 15°C during the day.

Summer is our warmest season from late June to late September. We generally experience a temperature from 19°C at night to 25°C during the day. However, it also happens that we have extreme highs of up to 30° or even 40°C. Summer is a time when many people get out to one of the many lakes that our region is so proud of. There are many beautiful campgrounds to choose from and many beaches to visit when you want to swim or participate in water sports.

Fall is a beautiful season from late September to late December. There is a wide range of temperatures during that period. In September and October, the weather is usually about 10°C at night and can range up to about 15°C during the day. November and December can get quite a lot colder and we almost always see snow come during that season. Now the temperatures become very cold. At night the temperatures range as low as -20°C up to about -10°C.

Winter months are from late December to late March. This is when the temperatures are hard to predict. Daytime temperatures range from -5°C to -20°C. Night time temperatures range from -15°C to -26°C. At least once during the winter we have what is called a 'cold snap' where the temperatures are between -30°C to -40°. Thankfully these extreme temperatures only last for a few days. The winter months are when we experience the most snowfall. The snowfall is generally welcomed in Saskatchewan for two reasons. The amount of snowfall will determine how wet the ground will be for the farmers crops to grow in the spring. The other reason is snow provides the opportunity for many outdoor activities. These include skiing, tobogganing, sledding, skating, hockey etc. In the fall and winter you will need a warm jacket, scarf, mitts and warm boots. If you dress properly for the weather every season is fun and enjoyable.

Meals

In Canada people generally have three meals a day. Breakfast is first thing in the morning and people have a wide range of choices. A light breakfast may include coffee or juice, toast or a muffin and cereal. Some prefer a heartier breakfast that includes bacon and eggs and toast.

Lunch is usually around noon. Many people have soup or a sandwich for lunch. Supper (sometimes called dinner) is the last meal of the day. This is usually about 6:00 pm. This is generally the bigger meal of the day and often includes some type of meat, pasta or potatoes and some type of cooked vegetable or salad. In many homes it is customary to have some type of dessert such as pie, cake or fresh fruit.

Smoking

Smoking is not permitted on any college property.

Alcohol

In public, drinking is not permitted except in licensed locations like bars and restaurants. Some functions permit alcohol as long as there is a license to allow it. In Saskatchewan you must be 19 years of age to consume alcohol legally. NWC does not permit alcohol on campus property. Anyone under the influence of alcohol while on NWC property will be sent home by the safest way possible. The college has a zero tolerance for drugs and alcohol.

Cannabis

Cannabis is now legal to consume in Canada. At the college, like alcohol, no one is permitted to use or be under the influence of cannabis. The college has a zero tolerance for drugs and alcohol.

International Students Represented by an Agent

International students may decide to be represented by an agent. In this case the College requires a signed notification from the applicant naming the agent who is representing the student. Prior to registration, agents are authorized by the applicant to make any decisions and declarations regarding the admission application and any applicable refunds. After registration, all authorization and decision-making moves to the student. At the point of submitting an application for admission the agent is agreeing that:

- the information is true and complete;
- the applicant has reviewed and verified the application information;
- they authorize the College to collect and store the applicant's personal information;
- they authorize the College to release and obtain information from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada related to the applicant's study permit/visa;
- all documentation submitted to the College will not be returned, and
- the applicant has reviewed and understands the refund policy at NWC.

Study Permits

Before starting a program of study in Canada, students must receive a study permit from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. More information is available at:

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada - Canada.ca.

Students must not allow their study permit to expire. The study permit, along with the passport, are the most important immigration documents. International students require a study permit for courses or programs of six months or more. Depending on the country of origin, most study permits will be issued for the duration of the student's program of study. In any case, students are to renew study permits at least 30 days before the current permit expires. Remember that allowing a study permit to expire is considered a violation of the Immigration Act.

There may be implications on your study permit if you were to withdraw from an institution. Please make sure to refer to the following websites for more information regarding study permits:

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/study-permit.html>

<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/helpcentre/questions-answers-by-topic.asp?st=15.2>

Visas

International students may also require a visa which can be applied for at the same website as the study permit.

Work Permits to Work Off-Campus and Post-Graduation

Students are required to stay current on citizenship and immigration rules regarding work permits. The following website will provide students with information regarding permits and eligibility towards working off-campus and for working after your program graduation.

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/work-off-campus.html>

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/after-graduation.html>

Some programs require students to do a work placement, clinical or practicum component within their curriculum. Some employers and host agencies may require a criminal record check and vulnerable sector check from a recognized police service before they can start their clinical or work placement. It is preferable for International students to bring a criminal record check with them from their home country. Accordingly, students who register in a program with a clinical or work placement component, it is their responsibility to ensure that they are eligible to participate. Students should also be aware that some professions and licensing boards also require a criminal record check provision to ensure suitability to practice in the profession.

Academic Misconduct

The following six areas constitute the major types of academic misconduct and are subject to penalties. No fees are refunded if the student is dismissed from the College for academic misconduct.

Cheating

Cheating is the use of inappropriate, prohibited or unacknowledged materials, information or aids in any academic work. The use of notes, books, electronic technology (including but not limited to calculators, cell phones, tablets and voice or video recordings) and conversation with others is restricted or forbidden. Students may not request others to conduct research or perform any work for them.

Fabrication

Fabrication is the falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic work or required program documentation such as clinical permits, criminal record checks, etc. Invented information may not be used in any academic work without the prior authorization of the instructor. The actual and original source of the information must be acknowledged in a citation.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the representation of words or ideas of another as one's own. To avoid plagiarism every source of information must be identified and properly documented according to an established writing convention determined by the instructor.

Facilitating Academic Misconduct

Students who knowingly or negligently allow their work or portions of their work to be used by other students or who otherwise aid others in committing academic misconduct are violating academic integrity. Such students are as guilty as a student who receives and uses the material or who is involved in the incident directly, even though they may not themselves benefit from the act of misconduct and are therefore subject to the same penalties.

Copyright Violation

Canada's Copyright Act states the legal and permissible use of copyright materials. Copying beyond the limits of the Act is a violation and liability for these actions will rest with the individual who made the illegal copy.

Nonacademic Misconduct

Misconduct is defined as unacceptable or improper behavior. Disrespectful behavior, dress, or conduct will be addressed on an individual basis. This includes, but is not limited to, harassment (verbal/physical), attendance, punctuality, substance abuse, inappropriate clothing, etc. Extreme consequences can include changes to their program status. North West College has zero tolerance for violence and harassment. These offences may result in immediate discontinuation from the program.

Attendance

NWC programs involve education and training to prepare students for employment or further study, and as such, there are expectations of attendance and punctuality for all students. Attendance requirements are set by the accrediting institution for each program. Students must keep in contact with instructors or the international student advisor when away from the classroom, and are responsible for all work that is missed. Absenteeism concerns may result in discontinuation from the program. It is important to remember there is a direct correlation between attendance and the level of success in academic programs.

Respect

We believe that people thrive when they feel safe and valued. We all have a part in creating a respectful community. You can help one another to be respectful and supportive of each other; work with staff to help you deal with social, personal or health issues that affect your academic performance or on-campus behavior; and know that there is zero tolerance for inappropriate comments, actions, or behaviors.

Classroom Environment

The learning environment and activities are controlled by the instructor and guided by mutual respect, common sense, courtesy and etiquette. The instructor has the right to require students to cease and desist in actions that are disruptive or that impede positive progress in the program. The instructor has the right to require anyone to leave the learning environment if positive progress is impeded by his or her actions or comments.

At North West College you will be treated as an equal with all other students. Our commitment to our students is exemplified in all areas of the college through individual student attention and support, well trained and caring instructors, celebration of student successes, learning and service options, and a safe, caring learning environment. Students are encouraged to ask questions and share their perspective and to actively participate.
